MAY MOVE DISORDERLIES

MEETING TO DISCUSS SUBJECT HELD AT BLAIRMORE THURSDAY.

NO DECISION REACHED

Fire at Frank caused Meeting to Discuss Strong Speeches Made All Favoring Some Action—Adj. adj. to Monday Next at same Place.

It has been amply demonstrated that there is great interest taken in The Pass in the movement to either abolish the restricted district between Frank and Blairmore or remove it to a more isolated place.

The meeting called for last Thursday evening at the Central Baptist church at Blairmore to discuss the subject was well attended and the movement given a strong impetus but no definite action was taken owing to the meeting being interrupted by a fire in Frank. The fire alarm sounded in the midst of the speaking and the audience was so depleted by those having interests at stake making it hard to hear the speaker. It was decided to postpone any attempt at adopting resolutions. Accordingly, an adjournment to Monday evening was taken.

The Rev. T. D. Jones of Frank was chosen chairman of the meeting after the Rev. J. Sergeant had called the gathering to order. The Rev.
Sutherland was appointed secretary and Chairman Jones announced that speeches would first be listened to, after which the adoption of resolutions would be considered. In his opening remarks, Mr. Jones made a strong plea that some definite action along the lines which might be considered the most practicable, be taken.

Mr. E. Lyon, of Blairmore was the first speaker. He put the case strongly in favor of it, that the existence of thousands of houses in their present location was a disgrace and urged their removal. He did not think it practicable to attempt to abolish them altogether although he would favor such action if he believed it could be accomplished. This he questioned and urged removal to some isolated spot.

Mark Drummond of Frank spoke along the same lines, after which the Rev.
Sergeant delivered himself of an able discussion of the merits of the situation.
He declared himself an abolitionist first but if it seemed the general sentiment that no extreme step could not be accomplished with success, he was willing to take the half loaf of removal and the enforcement of rigid restrictions, including the stopping of the sale of liquor in the houses and forbidding the inmates to appear in public except on stated days.

The Rev. Sutherland had no compromise to make. He proposed to abolish the district in toto and declared it could be done. With the "necessary evil" argument he had no patience.

Mr. Acheson, principal of the Cole man school, gave a stirring talk, taking the same stand as Mr. Sutherland.

The Rev. Hunter of Picher Creek, was the last speaker. He too, was an abolitionist and urged that no compromise be made. Mr. Hunter was in the midst of his remarks when the fire alarm sounded and the meeting broke up.

ANOTHER WASH HOUSE FIRE

It begins to look as if the "Great Unwashed" had designs on all the wash houses in Frank. The company wash house was burned a couple of weeks ago and Thursday evening the building which formerly served as a wash house for the Miners Hotel was gutted. But in this case, if the fire was a design on wash houses, it missed fire as the use of the building had long since changed and at this time was used only as a store house.

The origin of the fire is as deep a mystery as that of the company wash house. It had nothing in it except empty barrels and bottles and there was no fire anywhere near it, not even anything inflammable that might easily ignite.

Fortunately the fire was discovered early and the evening being quiet it did not spread with great rapidity with the result that although most of the members of the fire brigade were at Blairmore attending the mass meeting and there was consequent delay in getting out the apparatus, still the fire was confined to the interior of the building and the outer walls and roof were saved.

The loss is not heavy.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

The officers and teachers of the Frank Sunday school gave a treat to the boys and girls yesterday afternoon. The picnic was held on the spare ground by the side of the town and was a great success. Every arrangement possible to insure an enjoyable time was made.

The business men of the town all contributed freely to the prizes and all who were approached readily subscribed to make the prize list large.
Consequently some 36 prizes were offered. The ladies worked heartily so that there was no shortage of provisions. Great credit is due to Geo.
Pattinson for the able way in which he conducted the entire treat.

FRANK WILL PLAY COLEMAN

A league match is to be played next Saturday evening at Frank between Frank and Coleman. This will be the first match either of these teams have played for several weeks and as both teams have almost equal points we may expect a stiff fight for possition.

The adjourned meeting was held Monday night when a large number of men gathered to further discuss the question of removing the disorderly houses. Chairman Jones very briefly outlined the question and called for resolutions.

The Rev. Sutherland moved that the superintendent of the mounted police be called upon to remove the restricted district. Mr. Acheson seconded the motion.

Mr. Matheson then spoke suggesting that the mover of the resolution place any information he had to before the police and action would be taken without resolutions being sent in.

The debate was not quick, but calm and deliberative. Speakers cited history to prove their cases, mentioning Winnipeg, Calgary, Macleod and even the Indian incident in which Lady Butler and Lady Henry Somerset figured.

Alex Cameron in the course of a very forceful address stated that when anticipated marriage they demanded of their brides personal purity. Why do not the young women make a similar demand upon the men? If the ladies could only be brought to realize what an influence they would wield to such a degree he was certain they would act and their action would be a great good.
Mr. Lyons, Rev. Sergeant, Mr. Gresham and others joined in the discussion, after which the resolution was passed, amendments called for and none being offered a vote was taken resulting in 30 affirmatives to 10 neg-atives the remainder were neutral.

RACE MEET AT BLAIRMORE

BLAIRMORE TO CELEBRATE LABOR DAY, SEPTEMBER 6TH.

CLASSY HORSESCOTING

Blairmore to have First Marathon in this Country Sept 14th—Track at Very Fine Shape—Alberta Circuit Horse Coursing.

Blairmore means to have a good time Labor Day and the day following, September 14th and 15th. Arrangements are being made for some exciting events, and it is expected that huge crowds will gather to join in the sports.

One of the most interesting features of the occasion will be a marathon race on the second day of the sports. To attract good runners a big purse of from $350. to $500. is being offered by the Coleman people.

Success for the 6th will be guaranteed by the presence of the Alberta circuit horses which Capt. W. A.
Beebe has succeeded in securing for the races. Every animal is classy and each race will be hotly contested.
The track has been cleared and rolled for the occasion so that it is in excellent condition for speedy events.

One of the most important considerations in all race meets is the course and Blairmore does well to see that every facility is given to the racers to make good time in each case.

Besides the Marathon for the 7th there will be various games and sports.

A raging fire visited Coal Creek Sunday last and before it had finished its work a loss of 18 buildings was enriched. The fire is supposed to have started by the explosion of a lamp in the basement of the Coal Creek club house at about 6.45. The fire was first discovered by members of the club, who noticed smoke issuing from the basement. The alarm was at once given and everything done to check the flames, but the wood was old and dry, and fanned by a high south wind that blew straight up the valley, the fire soon enveloped the building and it spread to others. The total loss is estimated at about $180,000. The heaviest losers are the Triller-Wood company, the Club and the Coal company. Great blame was heard in heard on all sides about the poor wood supply, there being only a tiny stream from the hose—District

IS A THOUGHTLESS INJURY.

The last has not even yet been heard from the report which went abroad two weeks ago that another slide had occurred at Frank, this report growing out of an innocent enough appearing item sent to outside papers by a Blainmore correspondent who did not say there had been a slide but did say that cracks were widening on Turtle Mountain and that fears of slides were entertained. This was magnified into another slide in the retelling until the impression became very general in outside places that there had actually been a slide. People from Frank visiting other towns are yet queried as to the alleged slide, indicating how such a report can grow and spread and illustrating how a town may suffer by the weakening of confidence through a simple bit of thoughtless news.

No one, we imagine, has any idea that the item in question was sent out with any intention of injuring Frank, at least The Frank Paper would not be willing to credit any person having brains enough to write correspondence with such narrow mindedness, such despicable littleness as to send out a report as newspaper correspondence with the deliberate intention of injuring a town. Instead, we are convinced the item was sent out merely as an item to help swell the string, entirely without thought that it would create excitement or do injury. But the circumstance serves to illustrate how easy it is to do injury and it may be hoped it will also have the effect of influencing correspondents to be more careful in future to send out nothing calculated to injure a neighboring town without first being sure of the facts.

Incidentally it may be further hoped that the daily papers that lend themselves to the circulation of the report will take note of this instance and in future take the trouble to verify reports calculated to do injury to a town before publishing them, since it must be patent that none of the papers in question had any wish to suppose an unwarranted injury upon Frank any more than they have upon any other town.

ADVICE ON STOCK RAISING.

P. Burns, the cattle king of Alberta, in an interview with a Calgary paper the other day issued a note of warning to the people of this province regarding stock raising. When Mr. Burns speaks on this subject there is reason for people to give attention to his words, for no man knows the situation better than he. It is recognized that the day of the big rancher is about gone, and the sale of immense herds of cattle by one man is practically a thing of the past. Whereas in 1905, the cattle sales for export in Alberta were nearly 75,000, up to July 1, this year the export sales have only been 18,000, and the estimate for the year is 40,000. Men are selling off their stock as fast as they can and last year more than half of the cattle exported were females that should have been kept here for breeding.

The rancher is selling out and going just farming or else disposing of his land to farmers. With these men wheat is king. They say they do not want to be bothered with cattle and want all their land for grain. Mr. Burns points out that this plan is a great waste. If a farmer kept only a few cattle he could use up his straw and corn feed that now goes to waste. He would keep his land renewed and keep it from running out, as it has in other parts where grain-growing has been the sole operation of the farmer. If a man raised only ten or twelve head of cattle for sale each year he would find in them a great saving and no small profit.

Mr. Burns points out that at the rate the stock is decreasing it will not be long before Alberta will have to import for home consumption. If, on the other hand, every farmer went in for mixed farming to a certain extent, there would be more cattle produced than there are at present.

Alberta should remain the greatest of cattle countries. With an abundance of feed, which costs practically nothing, with a climate that calls for the minimum of care for the stock, with an established reputation and both a great home market and for export market at its command, there is no reason why the province should not produce many times as many cattle as at present produced. Mixed farming, which includes considerable stock raising, would be a great financial benefit to the individual farmer and to the province as a whole. Beef is as steady a market as bread and stock-raising is therefore as necessary as wheat raising. Every farmer should get a few head of good cattle and save his calves to make beef. He will find it good business.—Lethbridge Herald.

DON'TS FOR CAMPERS

Don't when in the woods, throw down a lighted match, cigar stub, or other flaming object, make sure that the flame has been thoroughly extinguished before throwing it away.

Don't build your campfire larger than is necessary.

Don't, under any circumstances, leave your fire unattended even for a comparatively short time, see that it is dead out before you go away.

Don't build your fire in leaves, rotten wood or other inflammable material.

Don't build your fire against a large or hollow log, where it is hard to be sure when it has been entirely put out.

To these "don'ts" it may be added that in windy weather or in a dangerous place, it is well to confine the fire in a hole dug clean down to the mineral soil. A fire may smoulder in the humus, or "duff" for days, only waiting for a strong breeze to fan it into a flame that may burn over miles of timber.

Summer tourists and campers unfortunately have a bad reputation among owners of timber as being often a cause of fires. Such fires could be prevented, almost without exception, by a little extra care on the part of the campers, who have been the unintentional cause of much forest destruction, and who have just as real an interest in the preservation of the forests as the owners of the timber themselves. The rules given above are the result of long experience and observation on the part of many woodsmen and lumbermen as to the origin of fires from this cause, and are earnestly recommended to the attention of campers, sportsmen and others.
